The Insurance Employees Co-op Credit Union Scholarship Manual

1. Name of Scholarship

This Scholarship shall be called "The Insurance Employees Co-operative Credit Union Scholarship" hereinafter referred to as "The scholarship".

2. Scholarship selection committee (hereinafter referred to as "The Committee") The Committee shall be comprised of three (3) people from the Credit Union. The committee may comprise of one (1) Board member, one (1) head of department and one (1) independent staff member who does not have a scholarship application pending or such other persons as that committee deems appropriate.

3. Commencement of The Scholarship

The Scholarships shall be awarded for the current academic school year.

4. Number of Scholarship

Two scholarships shall be awarded every year to two students, one girl and one boy, entering high school who meet the eligibility requirements.

5. Duration of Scholarship

Each scholarship shall be for the duration of the high school program and is not to exceed five (5) consecutive academic school years, commencing the first school year that the scholarship awardees enter high school.

6. Eligibility

This Scholarship is available to the legal child of a member of the Insurance Employees Cooperative Credit Union Limited (IECCU). The parent/legal guardian must be a member for at least six months, in good standing, no delinquencies with the IECCU for at least two years at the time of applying and their child must be enrolled in the Early Start/Treasure Chest program/account. Only one child per family will be eligible for this scholarship. A family is ineligible from having a second awardee while still benefiting from a previous scholarship award.

The award will be based on the following:

- The child taking the Primary Exit Profile (PEP) and results are provided
- High academic performance/grades in school exams & PEP
- The child being accepted to a high school
- Satisfactory behavior at graduating school
- Financial need

7. Value of Scholarship

The scholarship shall have a value of J$30,000.00 for each academic school year.

8. Disbursement of Scholarship funds

IECCU shall pay funds directly to the school and/or bookstore to assist with the child's school fees & schoolbooks. Any other purchases must be pre-approved.

9. Selection Process

Qualifying students may be subject to an interview by the selection committee. The committee reserves the right to request an interview with any or all student/s and/or parents if, in its discretion, this will help with the decision-making process. The committee reserves the right to forego the scholarship for any scholarship year if, in its opinion, no suitable candidate has been identified.

The successful scholar will be announced in the Credit Union's SPICE Magazine and is required to participate in any other form of promotion that the Credit Union may undertake in relation to the award of the scholarships.

10. Requirements

(a) A fully completed Scholarship Application form must be submitted to:

THE SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE IECCU 27 PARKINGTON PLAZA, KINGSTON 10

This application form must be accompanied by the following:

- (b) The original of the last report from the school where he/she prepared for the PEP.
- (c) Proof of the PEP results.
- (d) Proof of acceptance from a high school.

11. Conditions of continuity of scholarship

Continuity is dependent on the scholarship winners maintaining a minimum average of 70% for conduct and academic performance. Failure to maintain an average of at least 70% will result in a loss of the scholarship. The student's report/s must be submitted to the committee for review by the end of July each year. Disbursement of funds will be contingent on the receipt of the reports.

12. Termination of scholarship

Scholarships are tenable at any recognized high school in Jamaica and are not transferable to any other student.

Should a scholarship winner terminate his/her attendance at the high school before the scholarship term expires, he/she will have been deemed to have forfeited all rights and privileges to the scholarship.

Should a scholarship winner wish to transfer to another high school, the Credit Union should be advised in writing and a report submitted to the committee for consideration and approval.

13. Responsibility

The ultimate responsibility for the administration of the scholarship program resides with the Board of Directors of the IECCU who, through the committee, may change, alter or otherwise discontinue the scholarship program.
